RE: _____ NMCD ID #: _____
(name of parolee)

Dear Mr. McSorley and Members of the NM Parole Board:

Please be advised that I am overdue for my sex offender parole review hearing.

1. My initial five-year term of parole in my case commenced on: _____, the day I finished my prison sentence term of _____ years.
2. Although my parole time started on the date above, I was actually released from NMCD custody on _____.
3. Accordingly, my initial 5 years of parole supervision expired/expires on:
_____.
4. My parole review is now _____ days overdue.

Pursuant to New Mexico Statute Section 31-21-10.1, I request that my parole review hearing be set immediately, or that I be released from all supervision. Failure to provide my review hearing as required by the law violates my due process rights and causes me to be falsely imprisoned. This letter also serves as notice, to the New Mexico Parole Board and the New Mexico Department of Corrections, of a tort claim under NMSA § 41-4-12, and notice of Civil Rights violation under 42 USC § 1983, and the New Mexico Civil Rights Act of 2021 (HB 40, Session Laws 2021).

Please advise me regarding the planned action of the New Mexico Parole Board.
